Preface

What happens when a country of the size of India has about 11 million children living on the streets? Or has 14 million children working as labors? Or one out of every six girls does not live to see her 15th birthday? What happens when only 60% of children have access to education despite having a national policy on compulsory elementary education?

The statement "children are the future of nation" ceases to make sense under such circumstances! In fact, it sounds like an ominous prophecy.

Clearly, we have a lot to answer for. And as concerned citizens, do something about it; something meaningful, concrete and urgent. No more do we have the luxury of blaming the system or postponing our actions. The time to take collective as well as individual responsibility to remedy the current situation is here. Right now!

Education is the key to addressing systemic issues like poverty, child labor, and high mortality rate among children, especially girls. Our Mission Education programme aims to place as many out-of-school children as possible under the ambit of education. So far, Mission Education has benefitted more than 180 underprivileged children across Dumraon village of Bihar.

Sampanne Jeevan was initiated by third year students of NIT Trichy in 2013, with support from people of Dumraon ,Bihar. It seeks to give a voice to the dreams and aspirations of millions of underprivileged children in India, who are struggling to exist amid the odds.

ABOUT US

GENESIS

"Sustainability, social equality and the environment are now business problems. And corporate leaders can't depend on governments to solve them..." - Peter Senge, founder, Society for Organizational Learning

Inspired by Senge's philosophy, a group of students came together in 2013 to set up Sampanne Jeevan to work with grassroots initiatives for effecting positive changes in the lives of underprivileged children, their families and communities.

OUR VISION

- Work as a catalyst in bringing sustainable change in the lives of underprivileged children, youth and women, with a life-cycle approach of development
- Enable the civil society across the world to engage proactively in the change process through the philosophy of civic driven change
- Adopt highest standards of governance to emerge as a leading knowledge and technology driven, innovative and scalable international development organization

OUR MISSION

Sampanne Jeevan is to empower underprivileged children and youth through relevant education, innovative healthcare and market-focused livelihood programmes. Sampanne Jeevan is to deploy best possible methodology and technology for achieving ideal social return to practice and promote good governance. To link business competitiveness of the corporate with social development initiatives; also to sensitize privileged children, youth and citizens in general to promote Civic Driven Change.

OUR BELIEF

Sampanne Jeevan believes that unless members of the youth society are involved proactively in the process of development, sustainable change will not happen. Believing in this principle of 'Youth Driven Change', Sampanne Jeevan sensitizes the civil society in order to make them partners in its mission.

LIFECYCLE APPROACH : CHILDREN, THEIR FAMILIES AND THE COMMUNITY

Sampanne Jeevan believes that education is both the means as well as the end to a better life: the means because it empowers an individual to earn his/her livelihood and the end because it increases one's awareness on a range of issues – from healthcare to appropriate social behavior to understanding one's rights – and in the process help him/her evolve as a better citizen. Education is the most effective tool which helps children build a strong foundation; enabling them to free themselves from the vicious cycle of ignorance, poverty and disease.

Sampanne Jeevan realized that Education for Children cannot be achieved without the family, particularly, unless the mother is assured of health care and empowered. Moreover, when an elder sibling is educated and relevantly skilled to be employable and begins earning, the journey of empowerment continues beyond the present generation.

Sampanne Jeevan extended its thematic areas of intervention by supporting family health, livelihood, and women empowerment. Children, their families and the community become the target group for Sampanne Jeevan's activities as child education cannot be done in isolation and nothing else but education for children can bring long lasting change in the society.

Dumraon :

OUR LONG TERM GOALS

1. Stop Child labour

The plight of children is heartbreakingly when they are bonded labour. Our Government is taking drastic steps to prevent child labour and encouraging literacy to develop. According to our constitutional article 45 — Universal Free Compulsory Education should be achieved. We should join our hands to fulfill the goal of doing away with child labor and not wait for the Government to act. We need to stretch our helping hand and thereby we can initiate help from others. Though our work is a drop in the ocean, but every drop has its own contributions. we want to ensure that such child labour are rescued, rehabilitated and provided with education and the basic amenities like food, clothing and healthcare that is the right of any child. We will make efforts to identify such practices, report them to authorities and try to rehabilitate such children.

2. Preventing to infectious disease

The increase in life expectancy during the 20th century is largely due to improvements in child survival; this increase is associated with reductions in infectious disease mortality, due largely to immunization. However, infectious diseases remain a major cause of illness, disability, and death. Awareness of disease and completing prevention and treatment courses remain essential components for reducing infectious disease transmission.

3. Constitutional laws & order awareness in village

Rural India still do not know their constitutional rights due to which they have to face tough situation in raising their voice against the different issues. Henceforth Sampanne Jeevan will try to make villagers aware of the constitutional rights and duties so that they can have equality in justification of any issues.
